THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF GRENADA COUNTY

The whistle of the engine of four large saw mill plants is a part of the early morning music to disturb the slumbers of late sleepers in Grenada. The whistle of these engines are encouraging and refreshing to those who are thinking and planning about the practical affairs of life.

We note from the current issue of "The Mississippian," published at the University by the students, that two of the trustees visited that institution only recently and that in the talks these gentlemen made to the students, one of them "confined his remarks to the progress which is being made in athletics at the University", while the other is reported to have "congratulated the football team upon the fighting spirit which it has manifested" and "also said a few words in regard to hazing". Now we are not seeking to find any particular fault with the remarks these officials are reputed to have made, but we are just wondering if the fathers and mothers of the country are thinking about the time and money being squandered in athletics. Some athletics is all right, but too much is just that much more than enough.

SUGGESTS STATE TAXPAYERS MEET

On the first page of this paper, there appears a statement, "To The People of Mississippi," from Judge G. A. McLean of Winona in which the Judge suggests the advisability of calling a meeting of representative citizens in Jackson for the purpose of counselling together as to the State's finances and of discussing present as well as prospective tax problems. We think the suggestion a very timely one and that a meeting of the character we are sure Judge McLean has in mind, ought to prove valuable to the Mississippi public in many ways.

Judge McLean is a large taxpayer himself and knows from experience how the extravagance and waste of money during the past few years has borne down upon him. The Judge is a Christian gentleman and one who stands for the best in morals and the public life of the State, all of which should give potency to any public statement from him.

As stated by Judge McLean, he was made president of the Mississippi State Taxpayers League at the state gathering held in Jackson last February.

RECKLESS AUTOMOBILE DRIVING

Reckless automobile driving is not confined to Grenada or Grenada County. The whole country has the mania. It is rare indeed that one picks up a daily paper that he does not see some big headlines something like this: "Four killed in auto wreck. Child killed, mother perhaps fatally injured and three visiting friends killed. When accident occurred, car was making a speed of 50 miles per hour".

Not only are people speeding in cars but they are speeding at a great many other things.

But regardless of these things and of what others are doing, why not Grenada County set the world an example of safe and sane car driving?

It is not an infrequent thing to hear it said that "somebody shot by me like a cannon ball and did not seem disposed to give any of the road."

The law provides how cars should pass and which side of the road each should take. Hence, it is a violation of the law not to give half of the road and not to take the right side of the road, but such action is also morally wrong, and like every other transgression and evil, will bring its penalty.

Let's not be in such a hurry to get to a place that we will endanger our lives and the lives of others by driving a car too fast. Let's think about what we are going to do after we get to a place that we must abandon reason as to rate of speed, and let's also think how badly we would dislike not to get there at all and maybe carried back lifeless or crippled for the balance of our days.

PAT HARRISON HONORS HIS STATE

All loyal Mississippians can but take great pride in the honor that Senator Pat Harrison has brought to the State.

The Senator has been in the Senate not quite three years, yet we find him being practically offered the leadership of the Democrats in that great deliberative body. It is indeed a great tribute to his statesmanship, the ability, the poise and popularity of this splendid man—a man who is intensely human and who does not become so absorbed in matters of State that he cannot turn aside to do those gracious and thoughtful things that tie men to him with hooks of steel. One big thing about Pat Harrison is that honors which come to him make him still more Pat.

We are not surprised that his fellow Senators hold him in high esteem. We are not surprised that he has shown himself a political foe dreaded by the Republicans like the seven plagues of Egypt.

Pat Harrison again demonstrated his wisdom, his worth as a leader, and that deference to his fellows which makes men love him, when he announced that it would not be proper to jump over older heads and Democrats of longer service than he to make him leader. He is already in a position by party preferment in the Senate where he can render his party and his country perhaps a greater service than as leader.

Pat Harrison keeps Mississippi to the front. The days of Prentiss, Davis, Lamar, George, Walthall and Williams are perpetuated in him. He is a friend of the great masses. He is a Senator who combines most happily common sense and patriotism in the light and knowledge of the needs of his country and of the great leaders who have gone on before.

THANKSGIVING DAY, YESTERDAY

Yesterday was the last day of the eleventh month, and Thanksgiving Day. Let us hope that out of the thoughts of Thanksgiving and the experiences of the day, out of what we did that day, we may be truly better men and better women and render unto Him that homage and that service which is our bounden duty.

We are sure that every thoughtful person was grateful for living. We are sure that every thoughtful person, especially in our own land, turned his heart to God in love and adoration for the particular joys and blessings of the day and for still another opportunity to set his house in order and to get the heavenly record balanced by a red line written in the blood of the Redeemer.

We saw just the other day an attempt to be humorous in a statement when some one said that "America might be thankful but Europe would have to search for her thankfulness." Europe should be thankful that she is not fighting. She should be thankful for her civilization; she should thank the Almighty that in spite of her transgressions and general tergiversations, His ears are still open to her. Every human creature, whose mind is normal and with even a shadow of civilization, ought to have been thankful.

Our troubles of State and as individuals are of our own making. No one individual is perhaps responsible for our shadows and worries of government, but they rest upon the shoulders of all to a greater or to a less degree. Of course the man with the greatest endowment, with the most talents, must, and very properly, bear the greatest responsibilities for whatever ills beset us as a Nation. So we should be thankful that God is still giving us a chance to right these things and that He has not cut us off in our misdeeds.

One cannot seriously contemplate the shining sun, the splendor of the moon, the twinkling of the stars, the glory of the springtime, the verdure of summer, the grandeur of the fall and the solace and contemplation of winter without unconsciously saying, "I am glad, I am grateful."

Coming down to our own dear little town and County, our laps have been filled with a luxury of the higher and better things of life. We live among a people the equal of any on the globe. These people are kind neighbors, they are charitable in considering our shortcomings, they are mindful of us when we are sick, they do not think in terms of dollars, their conduct is not measured by percentage—they are a people who reflect the things that come from a haven where joy reigns supreme and where all that is pure, holy and good is born.

So we repeat, that out of Thanksgiving and the reflections which we hope all had, may we all get on higher ground and endeavor to do our duty better as citizens, as husbands, as fathers, as neighbors, as friends and as churchmen and last, but by no means least, may we realize that we should be on duty all the time to maintain the integrity of this great government.

Mr. J. C. Cavett returned Monday to his home in Jackson after having spent a short while in Grenada with his daughter, Mrs. B. D. Newsom, on College Avenue.

Mrs. Sadie Whitten of Sumner is visiting at the home of Mrs. J. H. Brown.

Mrs. Craddock Rule and her infant son, Dick, arrived in Grenada Monday from Little Rock, Ark., where they had been for several weeks with their husband and father. The company for which Mr. Rule is working is on the road again and it was thought inadvisable for the baby to travel, hence they will spend some time with Mrs. Rule's mother, Mrs. Bettie Inman.

Mrs. Betty Cole spent a short while the first of this week in Winona.

WILL BLESS THE DAY SHE LEARNED OF STELLA VITAE

"I Indorse This Wonderful Treatment With All My Heart," Declares Mrs. Carter.

"If every woman who is suffering from Female Troubles knew what I know about the Stella Vitae treatment there wouldn't be a home in the country without a supply of this remarkable preparation," recently declared Mrs. Mandy Carter, of Jacoby, La., in an enthusiastic letter praising the Stella Vitae Health Campaign now being waged against Female Diseases.

"There's no doubt about it, Stella Vitae is the most wonderful treatment on earth for weak, suffering women," continued Mrs. Carter. "After what it has done for me, I believe it is the only thing worth taking and I indorse it with all my heart."

"My health is better than in years. I never suffer with pains any more and never have any more of the miserable feelings that used to pull me down so every month. I tell you, it's simply wonderful to be free of all my sufferings and feel as well as I do now."

"I can never tell how grateful I am for Stella Vitae, but can only say that I will always bless the day I first learned of this wonderful treatment."

Note—Stella Vitae may be obtained from any druggist and is sold upon the positive guarantee that if it fails to bring relief the purchase price will be refunded. Druggists are supplied from the Van Vleet-Mansfield Drug Co., Memphis, Tenn. Distributors.—Adv.

the people and they stood on deck and they could see land. So they traveled about two more days and landed.

Captain Miles Standish and seven other men went out to see what they could find. They saw some Indians, the Indians shot arrows at them.

Captain Miles Standish fired his gun and scared the Indians away.

The Pilgrims.
The Pilgrims lived in England and the king told everybody that they had to come to his church and worship God like he did or he would put them in prison.

The Pilgrims did not like this and left England and went to Holland and lived there 14 years.

One day they said we can not stay here because all our children will be speaking the Dutch language. We will go to America. So they began to pack, the girls would knit, the mothers spin and make clothes.

They would not have cattle over in the Free Country, and began to make butter, and cheese and pack it away in the ships.

They had pretty china with windmills on it, and they sold it so they could get some money to buy the ships with. The ships were named "The Mayflower" and "The Speedwell" that carried them to America.

NO REST-NO PEACE

There's no peace and little rest for the one who suffers from a bad back, and distressing urinary disorders. Grenada people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor! Be guided by their experience.

Mrs. W. A. Thompson, 632 Ker-shaw St., Grenada, says: "My kidneys were in a terrible condition. They acted too often and caused annoyance. My back hurt all the time and I could not rest at night. The doctor told me my kidneys were disordered. As I had a box of Doan's Kidney Pills I thought I would try them. They did just as represented in my case and two boxes cured me. I recommend them willingly."

Mrs. Thompson gave the above statement June 13, 1918 and on April 12, 1922, she said: "I know there is no medicine like Doan's Kidney Pills for anyone troubled with weak kidneys. Several years ago my kidneys bothered me but Doan's cured me of the trouble."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Thompson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

They had a Gov. and his name was Gov. Bradford. Their captain was Captain Miles Standish, and the preacher was named Elder Brewster, and there was another man named John Alden, and a girl who was 16 years old and her name was Priscilla.

Priscilla came with the Pilgrims to the Free Country, and in the first winter her mother, father and little brother died. She had no one to care for her so went to live with Mrs. Brewster.

Written by Lillian Woodson, Fourth Grade at the Cottage.

The Pilgrims Go To Holland.
Once, a long time ago in England, the King wanted all the people to come to his church, and worship God as he did.

There was a class of people that wanted to have a church and worship God in their own way.

The King heard of this and sent his soldiers to make them come to his church. So the Pilgrims decided to go to Holland.

The Dutch people were kind to them. But the children began to speak the Dutch language.

So after a while the Pilgrims decided to come to America. The children began to knit gloves and jackets and the women to spin and make clothes, also to make butter and pack it away in boxes.

And then early one morning they put everything in the ships called the Speedwell and the Mayflower, then all the people got on the ships.

After they had gone two days the Speedwell sprung a leak. The people had to go back and get on the Mayflower, but they all could not get on the Mayflower so just 120 could go to America.

Written by John Stephens, Fourth Grade in Cottage.

The First Thanksgiving Day.
The Indians were good to the Pilgrims. The Indians taught them how to make cornbread.

In the fall they gathered pumpkins, corn. The Indians gave some things to the Pilgrims. The men went out hunting and got turkeys, and birds and wild animals.

Gov. Bradford appointed a Thanksgiving Day. The Indians were asked to come to their feast.

The women spread white cloth across the table. The table was long, and the Indians sat down to eat.

The all had a happy time, and the feasting lasted a week.

Written by Louise Horton, Fourth Grade at Cottage.

The Landing of the Pilgrims.
The Pilgrims landed on Plymouth Rock Dec. 21, 1620, it was cold when they landed and they had to live in their ships until they could build their houses.

The men got their guns and went out to look at the country, to find a good place to build their homes.

The little boys wanted to get out and play so their mother told them they could go on the sand near the boat.

The women decided they would get out and wash while the men were away. They told the children to get some wood so they could wash. That was the first wash day in America.

GRENADA SENTINEL MAKES PROPOSITION TO SCHOOL CHILDREN

Nice Sum may be Realized for the Schools or for the Children

There are but few things that appeal more to the average school boy and girl than to put them at a task where they can do something that will add permanently to the value of their school or whereby they "Can Make Some Money" for themselves.

With the idea of putting The Sentinel in reach of the parents of every school child in Grenada County, and of making sure that The Sentinel is read in every home in the County as well as with the view of stimulating a healthy spirit among the school children of the County, while at the same time getting the children in a work that will develop a business training and thereby better equip them for the important duties of after-life, we are putting on the following subscription proposition to the schools and children of Grenada County. It may be proper to state that we have conferred with County Superintendent of Education, McKibben, about our plan and he has given it his hearty approval.

The regular subscription price of The Sentinel is $1.50 for one year. From now until January 1, 1923, we will allow any School in Grenada County a commission of fifty cents (50c) for each new subscription sent us. For ten new subscriptions at the same time, we will allow $7.00 commission to the school securing the subscriptions. On renewal subscriptions, we will allow the schools a commission of forty cents (40c) on each one and for ten renewals sent in at one time we will give a commission of $6.00. The only conditions are:

That the subscriptions must be sent in by the principal, teacher or some authorized school authority and cash must accompany each order, or list.

The superintendent or principal of each school can put his or her pupils to work and may offer some small bonus or prize to the child that gets up the largest subscription list. There is hardly any school in the County that cannot easily get a fund of from $50.00 to $100.00 for its library, playground or for some other purpose that will aid in the growth, equipment and development of the school. It is a matter left with each school as to what it does with the commissions—if they elect to give it, or a part of it, to the pupils, well and good.

State Superintendent of Education, Bond, only recently published a statement urging that school teachers and school patrons subscribe for their County paper. Indeed every taxpayer and every thoughtful citizen in the County needs his County paper for his own protection in many ways. It is the only way one can keep track of the business affairs of the County.

Besides the benefits to the schools already named and to the citizens of the County as well, a ticket will be given on every dollar paid in which may bring to the holder a Christmas Gift of $100. in Gold, or one of the other five gifts in Gold, totaling $300. which is to be distributed by The Grenada Sentinel and certain merchants in Grenada on the afternoon of Dec. 23. One of these gifts would be most acceptable to any school.

Our subscription offer can be made of great value to the schools if they will get interested in it at once and push it. And, by the way of suggestion, we would remind the school children, that there are lots of substantial colored citizens who ought to be solicited for subscriptions.

WE MIGHT ALSO ADD THAT OUR PROPOSITION APPLIES TO THE COLORED SCHOOLS OF THE COUNTY.

Get busy is the word. Which school will be the first to send in some subscriptions?

THE GRENADA SENTINEL, Grenada, Miss.

$100 for relief of policy holders if injured or taken sick away from home.
$250 for death of pedestrian under moving vehicle.

Do not hesitate because it costs so little, in truth, many insurance policies cost too much. We are only enabled to make this extra ordinary offer because of some special arrangements we have made.

Some of the largest daily newspapers in the United States, more than 200 of them in all, are offering this same insurance policy contract to their readers. Among the newspapers it might be mentioned that President Harding's paper, the Marion Star, at Marion, Ohio; The Washington City Herald; The Times Journal and scores upon scores of other newspapers.

Knowing that there is nothing too good for Sentinel readers, we made an investigation and got the privilege of selling these policies to our readers.

No such opportunity was ever before offered as this Reader Insurance Policy. It is a bonafide travel and accident policy put out by an Old Line Insurance Company.

While doing a real, a genuine, service for our readers, we make it easier for one to pay his or her subscription.

The cost is just a little over 1-4 of one cent a day--just think of it. Who would not be willing to double this small amount tomorrow morning as a guarantee against accidents?

DON'T DELAY. TIME IS TOO PRECIOUS. ACCIDENTS ARE TOO FREQUENT. THINK ABOUT WHAT SECURITY A $1000 ACCIDENT INSURANCE POLICY WILL MAKE YOU FEEL.

The policy is issued to both men and women between the ages of 16 and 70. No red tape. No medical examination required.

The newspapers are full of stories of automobile and other accidents every day. You may be the next.

The Sentinel believed that it would be doing something worth while if it could find a way to protect its readers against such misfortunes at a small cost.

Years and Times from Adam to Christ Proved by the Scriptures, Collected from Divers Authors

From Adam to flood, 1856 years. For Adam at 150 yrs. begat Seth; Seth at 105, begat Enos; Enos at 90, begat Cainan; Cainan at 70, begat Mahalaleel; Mahalaleel at 65, begat Jared; Jared at 162, begat Enoch; Enoch at 65, begat Mathuselah, who, at 187, begat Lamech, who, at 182, begat Noah. Noah at the coming of the flood was 600 years old, as appears from 7th Chap. Genesis. The whole sum of the years are 1856.

From the flood to the departure of Abraham from Chaldea were 422 years and 10 days; for the flood continued 1 year and 10 days; Shem, Noah's son, begat Arphaxad 2 years after that; Arphaxad begat Salah at 35; Salah at 30 begat Eber; Eber at 34 begat Peleg; Peleg at 30 begat Reu, who at 32 begat Serug, who at 30 begat Nahor, who at 29 begat Terah, who at 130 begat Abram and Abraham departed from Chaldea when he was 70 years old—these account for 422 years and 10 days.

From Abraham's departure from Ur in Chaldea to the departing of the children of Israel are 430 years, as shown by the following: Abraham was in Charan 5 years and left there in the 75th year. Abraham begat Isaac when he was 100 years old. At 60 years Isaac begat Jacob. Israel was in Egypt 220 years. Moses was 80 years old when he lead the Israelites out of Egypt. So deduct 80 years from 220. The rest of the years are divided between Amram and Kohath. Kohath begat Amram at 67, who begat Moses at 65 years. So this chronology is the 430 years mentioned in the 12th chapter of Exodus and in the 3rd chapter of Galatians.

From the going forth of the Israelites to the first building of the Temple is 480 years, after this chronological account: Moses was in the wilderness 40 years; Joshua and Othniel ruled 40 years; Ehud 80 years; Deborah 40 years; Gideon 40 years; Abimelech 3 years; Tola 23 years; Jair 22 years; then they were without a captain until the 18th year of Jephthah, who ruled 6 years; then Ibzan 7 years; Elon 10; Abdon 8;

Samson 20; Eli, judge and priest, 44 years; Samuel and Saul 40 years; David was king 40 years; Solomon in the 4th year of his rule began the Temple—these are the 480 years mentioned in 1st Book of Kings, chapter 6.

From the building of the Temple to Babylonian captivity, 419½ years. Solomon Reigned 36 years; Rehoboam 17 years; Abijah 3 years; Asa 41 years; Jehoshaphat 25 years; Jehoram 8 years; Ahaziah 1 year; Athaliah, the queen, 7 years; Jehoahaz 16 years; Amaziah 29 years; Uzziah 52 years; Jehoahaz 16 years; Ahaz 16 years; Hezekiah 29 years; Manasseh 55 years; Amon 2 years; Josiah 31 years; Jehoahaz 3 months, Eliakim 11 years; Jehoachin, Jehonias 3 months and here begins captivity of Babylon—these account for 419 years and 6 months.

The captivity lasted 70 years and Jerusalem was rebuilt after the captivity of 70 years.

The Israelites were delivered the first year of Cyrus. The work of rebuilding the Temple was begun in the 2nd year of the reign of Cyrus and finished in the 46th year. Nehemiah was given liberty in the 20th year of Darius and he went to build the city, which was finished in the 32nd year of Darius. All the years from the building of the Temple again were 26, and the whole sum of the years, 70.

From the reedifying of the Temple to the coming of Christ 483 years, after this chronology: It is stated in the 9th chapter of Daniel that Jerusalem should be built up again, and from that time to the coming of Christ are 69 weeks and every week is reckoned for 7 years. So 69 weeks are 483 years, for from the 32nd year of Darius to the 42nd year of Augustus, in which year our Savior was born, are just and complete so many years, whereupon we count from Adam until Christ 3974 years 6 months and 10 days; and from the time of Adam until the present time is lacking only about 4 years of being 5900.

In Town Today

By special arrangement with local grocers, our factory representative (trained in labor-saving methods of house-keeping) will call upon the housewives of this community. Please be on the look-out to take advantage of the opportunity he offers.

Crystal White
The Billion Bubble Soap

Besides explaining how different forms of soap can be used most effectively, this gentleman will illustrate how manufacturers have combined purity and utmost cleansing qualities in such economical soap as Crystal White.

Also he has many helpful suggestions and a gift for each woman interested in easing her work and cutting household expenses. If you happen to be busy when he calls, please say so and he will take only as much time as you can spare.
